Mini Vacations in Washington State

By BennaC

port townsend ferry image by Joy Prescott from Fotolia.com

Washington has snow-capped mountains, resident orca pods, a rainforest and the odd vampire and werewolf. There are endless opportunities for mini-vacations, from wild places to wild adventures. See bald eagles or sit by a fire gazing off into the Cascades. Try a wine-tasting or stroll through a quaint seaport. For a weekend or a week, you can find something novel and relaxing to do in Washington.

The Hotel Vintage Park, Seattle, Plus the Ultimate Twilight Adventure

From the nightly wine reception in the hotel lobby to the luxury king penthouse suite with a dual-sided fireplace, four-poster canopy pillow-top bed, two-person jetted tub, complete entertainment system and fully stocked private bar, the Hotel Vintage Park offers one of Seattle's most romantic weekends. For over-the-top getaway romance, add the Ultimate Twilight Adventure, a day-long tour of Forks, with stops in the Hoh Rainforest, La Push, the town of Forks, a guided naturalist tour, tea and lunch. The movie will play in your bio-diesel Mercedes tour van and you'll have dinner where Bella and Edward had their first date, Bella Italia in Port Angeles. The hotel will arrange to have you picked up and dropped off at the door and will book the tour for you. Evergreen Escapes runs the tours, which include meals, guides and all transportation included. Request the Twilight Tour at least five days in advance.

Tower House Bed and Breakfast

The Tower House Bed and Breakfast is a short ferry ride from Anacortes to San Juan Island. The hotel, with only two suites, is a Queen Anne-style building on 10 acres overlooking the San Juan Valley. It's an adult-only getaway with a hot tub and a Tower Room with stained glass window and a sun room with glassed-in library and private porch. Breakfasts, served on fine china, are organic and vegetarian. Vegan is available on request. The inn is nonsmoking and has free Wi-Fi. The proprietors will help you find bird and whale watching adventures, hiking trails, the most secluded public beaches and fine restaurants.

Port Townsend Bed and Breakfast

Ravenscroft Inn is in the middle of Port Townsend, which is a well-preserved historic seaport town filled with quaint shops and an active cultural arts scene at the northwest tip of the Olympic Peninsula. The Inn, a rambling Victorian-style building with eight suites, offers soaking tubs, fireplaces, French doors opening onto a wide veranda and unimpeded views of the seaport and the Cascade Mountains. There is tea service before the fireplace in the Great Room every afternoon and breakfast is served there in the morning.
